Very Deplorable State of Affairs Unveiled in

THE SUMPTER-HOLDEN HEARINGS

Before Justice George Arkle Last Evening—A Father's Fall the Cause of Much Woe and Misery—Accusations and Counter Accusations Brought Forward—Justice Acts. Other Criminal Business.

The Sumpter-Holden hearings took place last evening at 7 o'clock before Justice George Arkle, and the state of affairs that developed through the testimony of a number of witnesses was truly deplorable. If ever a man's fall from respectability caused more violation against social order, than in the case of S. R. Holden, Wheeling's criminal history does not record it. From the testimony presented it was shown that for the past ten years Holden has not acted rightly toward his family, but on the contrary has been most of the time a drunkard, and almost entirely neglectful of the duty of husband to wife and family.

The prime cause of the action in law that came to a climax last evening seems to be in the person of Frank Sumpter, a young man whose occupation has been that of a teamster. Some time ago he became a member of the Holden household, and, after that, trouble began to brew. From the evidence, it seems that, while Holden was away on one of his sprees, Sumpter and Mrs. Holden became more intimate than they should, according to one witness they having been seen to embrace each other in the hallway.

The fourth actor in this domestic drama was Lulu Holden, a young girl about fifteen years of age. From the home surroundings it is no wonder that she wandered from the straight and narrow path. Testimony introduced showed that she was often sent to saloons by her father for beer and whisky, and that later she frequented the Black Diamond saloon, in the Sixth ward, kept by Louis Batilla, where she met boys and young men under age. It was also shown in the testimony that she went out in hacks with boys.

Holden was charged by his wife with not being of good fame, and the spouse required of him a bond of $200 for good behavior for one year. In default he went to jail for one year.

Frank Sumpter and Mrs. Holden, charged with cohabitation, were put under bonds of $100 each. The bond had not been procured last night.

Lulu Holden, charged by her father with not being of good fame, was sent to jail for sixty days in default of a $100 bond.

Louis Batilla, proprietor of the Black Diamond saloon, was one of the witnesses. He testified that Lulu Holden had been in his place three or four times, and that she with companions had purchased drinks there.

"Did you know whether they were of age?" asked the squire.

"No, I didn't ask whether they were of age."

"We may have time to attend to your case to-morrow, Mr. Batilla; we haven't the time just now."

"What you say?"

"That's all, just now," remarked the justice.

THE MURPHY MURDER.

The Slayer of the Policeman—A Show's Tough Record.

William Wilson, the Cook & Whitty circus fakir, will be tried for killing Policeman George Murphy in Martin's Ferry on September 1 at St. Clairsville some time in November. The grand jury has finished the work of taking testimony in the case. A woman supposed to be Wilson's wife visited him at the county jail this week. A picture of Wilson which has been in the Kogus's gallery was received yesterday from Detective J. T. Norris by Marshal Samuel Westwood, of Martin's Ferry. Briefly his record is this: "William Wilson, alias 'Billy' Wilson, professional confidence man and shell nutter, age 32 or 33; height, five feet 7 inches; hazel eyes, light auburn hair; residence, Peru, Indiana; brother-in-law of Lon White, alias 'Big' White, bun attache of old Wallace circus, alias 'Cook & Whitty' circus, for years a 'sure thing' fakir."

The circus with which Wilson traveled has, from reports, a bad reputation. It is said that one of the Wallaces paid $10,000 for killing a sheriff in Kansas, and fifteen or twenty of the attaches are under bond for their appearance before grand juries in different parts of the country. According to reports there are more confidence men and thieves with this circus than any other one of the size in the country, and these fellows share their stealings with the proprietors. The circus has had many rough experiences in different parts of the country, and has boxes in the ends of animal cages in which attaches who are wanted for their crimes are secreted until the show gets out of town.

This circus, which is the old Wallace show, will probably have to change its name again this winter. When the show was known as the Wallace Bros' show, it was unable to get licenses in many cities because of the tough reputation it bore. It has had a half dozen aliases in different states.

Lively in Police Circles.

For a while last night the police had lively times, the first time in several days. Officer West arrested May Thompson, alias "Jack, the Ripper," and Maggie Miller, for fighting in Alley C. They had quite a slugging match, but investigation showed that "Jack" was the aggressor, and she was kept in the lockup all night, while the other woman was released.

Officer Trischler brought in James Dare, a young man who was very drunk and insulting ladies. John Donley, of the hook and ladder house, had quite a round with the fellow while Trischler was hunting him on another street where complaints had also been made of his conduct. He will not be half so fresh when he comes out of the workhouse.

Released from Jail.

J. W. Donner, who has been in jail, was released by order of Judge Jordan, on his own recognizance in the sum of $100 to keep the peace towards Mrs. John Moore for six months.

Nora Green, in as a person not of good fame, was also released on her own recognizance in the sum of $100 to be of good behavior for one year.

THE CENTURY RUN.

More Entries to the Big One Hundred-Mile Run.

Yesterday two more entries were received by Charley Strobel for the first century road run of the wheelmen of this city, which takes place Sunday, and will be to Centerville, Pa., and return, a distance of a little over one hundred miles. The new entries were Walter Worla and Henry Mahike. Yesterday the pacemakers were selected, and are as follows: To West Alexander, Harry Gruber; to Washington, Oscar Smith; Charles H. Strobel, to Centerville; on the return to Washington, Will Sapler; to West Alexander, Will Juergens; to Wheeling, W. T. "Bud" Sadler. The schedule is as follows: Leave Wheeling, 5 a. m.; West Alexander, 7 a. m.; Clayville, 8 a. m.; Washington, 9:30 a. m.; arrive Centerville, 12 m.; leave Centerville, 1 p. m.; Washington, 3:30 p. m.; Clayville, 5 p. m.; West Alexander, 6 p. m.; arrive Wheeling, 7:30 p. m.; total time, 14 hours, 30 minutes; distance, 105 miles.

They Have Nerve.

The nerve and unadulterated gall that abounds in the composition of certain members of the Mountain State Bicycle Club is worthy of comment. The latest exemplification of these qualities, is the claim made by this club in a daily paper, that the coming century run next Sunday is under the auspices of the Mountain State club. This excites amusement among the wheelmen generally, as it is a well known fact that the club in question has nothing whatever to do with the run; it was started and is in charge of a member of another cycling organization, the Wheeling Athletic Wheelmen. This same club also took upon itself the credit of getting up the cyclists' run to West Alexander last Sunday, and as in this case, had nothing to do with it.

Bicycle Records Broken.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 12.—Two bicycle records on a quarter mile track were lowered here yesterday at the fall meeting of the Kansas City Athletic Club. Johnson established a world's record for a mile on a quarter mile track. He made the mile in 2:14 4-5. The best previous time for the same distance was 2:20 1-5, made by Johnson here in September. Rhodes, of Chicago, then sped off a half mile, flying start, in 1:04 flat, breaking the record by several seconds.

A Chinaman of Walla Walla, Washington, answers to the name of Shoo Fly.

There's light ahead for the women who suffer, if they'll only turn towards it. There's a guaranteed remedy for all the delicate derangements, chronic weakness, and painful disorders that make women miserable. It's Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—and it makes women healthy and strong.

It's a legitimate medicine that's purely vegetable and perfectly harmless—a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, renewing and invigorating the entire system. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions of womanhood, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength.

For periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, and all "female complaints" and irregularities, "Favorite Prescription" is a positive remedy—the only one that's so sure and certain that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.
